

Latin Hybridities: the Roots of Indigenous, African and European Latinidad & Contemporary Social Issues for Latino Communities

Friday, September 18, 2009

Sykes Student Union

9:30 – 10:15	Registration, Sign-up for ACT 48 Credits if desired Continental Breakfast – Coffee, tea, fruit, empanaditas dulces (sweet empanadas)	Sykes Student Union Theater
10:15 – 10:30	Welcome to West Chester University (WCU) – Dr. Lina Lamwers, Provost/Vice-President for Academic Affairs Bienvenidos a Latino Heritage Month and the Conference WCU Latino Heritage Committee Coordinators: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Dr. Idna Corbett, Dean of Undergraduate Studies and Student Support Services. ■ Dr. Linda Stevenson, Director, WCU Latin American Studies, Associate Professor, Political Science, Director, Greater Philadelphia Latin American Studies Consortium (GPLASC, 2008-2010). 	Sykes Student Union - Theater
10:30- 11:45	Breakout Session #1 Presentation #1. Pennsylvania Migrant Education Program in Chester County Dr. Jane Hershberger (Migrant Education Program Supervisor), Dorca Oyola (Recruiter Coordinator), Mauricio Rebollo (Recruiter), Martha Labbe (Preschool Specialist), Elizabeth Garduño (Elementary Specialist), Manuel Ibarra (Secondary Specialist), Danilo Perez (Out-of-School Youth Specialist), and Dora Navarro (Parent Coordinator) (90mins) Presentation #2. Multiple Hybridities: Spanish, English, and Interculturality in Junot Díaz's Brief Wondrous Life of Oscar Wao Dr. William B. Lalicker, Professor of English, WCU (60 mins) Presentation #3. Sacred Remains and Imagined Communities: Lo Precolombino as Touchstone Dr Ann Peters, Dept. of Geography and Urban Studies; Dr. Heather Levi, Dept. of Anthropology, Temple University; Dr. Clark Erickson, Dept. of Anthropology, Temple University (60 mins)	Sykes Theater
11:45- 1:00	Lunch – on your own in Sykes Student Union

1:00 – 2:00	Breakout Session #2	Sykes Theater
	Panel Presentation #1: A Portrait of one Rapidly Growing New Latino Diaspora Town.
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Collaboration Overview: Professor Stanton Wortham, Sofia Villenas, Kathy Lee, Carlos R. Martinez, University of Pennsylvania Graduate School of Education (GSE) ■ Family Centered Community: Carlos R. Martinez, Kathy Lee, Stanton Wortham, University of Pennsylvania GSE ■ “Good Parent Involvement” in School Conferences with Mexican Immigrant Parents. Sarah Lipinoga and Kathy Howard, University of Pennsylvania GSE (60 mins total)
	Panel Presentation #2: Gender and Power in Spanish Language and Cultures	Sykes 209
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ The Woman of Color as Nanny, or When Motherhood Is Labor: No pertenezco a este siglo by Rosa María Britton. Dr. Melody Nixon, Dept. of Modern Languages, Ursinus College (20 mins) ■ Reassessing Spanish and Spanish-Speaking Communities in the United States before 20th-Century Immigration – Power, Social Structure and Written Interaction in Pre-Statehood New Mexican Spanish. Dr. Israel Sanz-Sánchez, Dept. of Languages and Cultures, WCU, isanzsanch@wcupa.edu (20 mins)
	Panel Presentation #3: Issues of Locating “Home” for Migrant Latino Youth in Chester County	Sykes 210
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Ms. Laurie Szoke, Penn State Agricultural Extension, Dr. Gary Coutu, WCU Dept. of Geography. (60 mins)
2:15-3:15	Breakout Session #3
	Presentation #1. “Del ‘yo’ a ‘nosotros’: Embracing African Roots in Salsa to Establish Intercultural Links in Our Communities	Sykes Theater
	Ms. Brandi M. Waters, University of Pennsylvania (60 mins)
	Presentation #2. Chinos/Latinos: An Examination of Chinatowns across Latin America	Sykes Room 209
	Dr. Gary McDonogh, Bryn Mawr College and Dr. Cindy Wong, CUNY-CSI (60 mins)
	Presentation #3: Transcending Invisibility: Understanding Undocumented Mexican Mothers’ Strategies of Resource-Attainment for their US-born Children	Sykes Room 210
	Dr. Michele Belliveau, WCU Undergraduate Social Work Department (60 mins)
3:30 – 4:15	Walk across campus to Phillips Memorial Hall for light refreshments.	Phillips Lower level

4:30 – 5:30	KEYNOTE PRESENTATION #1 Introduction: Dr. Idna Corbett Keynote Speech: The Puerto Rican Diaspora: Historical Perspectives Dr. Victor Vásquez-Hernández, Associate Professor of History, Miami-Dade College	Philips Autograph Library (2 nd floor)
5:45	Dinner – Mexican Buffet – Under the tent on the WCU Quad; in case of rain, Asplundh Lower Level	WCU Quad, or Asplundh
7:00	WCU Latin Jazz Ensemble – Directed by Dr. Marc Jacoby & Dr. JC Dobzelewski, WCU Applied Music Department	Sykes Ballrooms
8:00	Antonio Colón y su Orquesta - ¡BAILE! (Salsa Dance Concert!)

Saturday, September 19, 2009
Philips Memorial Hall

7:30am	Optional: Nature walk at Stroud Preserve, Natural Lands Trust – bring your binoculars and good walking shoes	Stroud Preserve
9:00	Registration Continental breakfast – coffee, tea, and Mexican sweetbread (pan dulce)	Phillips Hall Lobby Phillips Lower-level
10:00–11:00	Breakout Session #4 Presentation #1: Homeboy Industries: Gang Intervention Program in East Los Angeles Dr. Brian O’Neill, WCU Dept. of Criminal Justice (60 mins) Presentation #2: “The ‘New Marginality:’ Representations of the Favela in Recent Brazilian Cinema” Dr. Tia Malkin-Fontecchio, WCU Dept. of History. (60 mins) Presentation #3: The Benefits of Home-based Tutoring for English Language Learners: The Tutor’s Perspective. Dr. Gail Bollin, WCU Dept. of Early and Middle Grades Preparation (60 mins)	Phillips Lower Level Phillips Library Phillips Board Room
11:15-12:15	KEYNOTE PRESENTATION #2 Introduction– Dr. Maria Van Liew, WCU Dept. of Languages and Cultures Keynote Speech: “Express Cultura, Explore Universidad, Engage Tu Futuro: Constructing Bicultural Bilingual Connections for Latino Youth” Ms. Jenée Alicia Chizick, Editor Motivos Magazine, Philadelphia PA	Phillips Library

12:30-1:30	Lunch – Box lunches and Breakout Sessions to discuss/ brainstorm our own institutional-organizational Latino connections, or other conference themes as requested by participants	Phillips Lower Level
1:45 - 3:00	Breakout Session #5 Presentation #1: Latino Migrant Workers and the Struggle for Labor Rights in Chester County's Mushroom Industry: ¡La Lucha Sigue! Ruth Schultz, Kaolin Workers Union; Efrén Diego, Kaolin Workers Union; Luis Tlaseca, Comité del Apoyo a los Trabajadores Agrícolas Presentation #2: Cultural and linguistic hybridization in contemporary indigenous literature of “Latin” America Dr. Hana Muzika Kahn, Department of Spanish, Temple University. (60 mins) Presentation #3: Cross Cultural Language Connections though Service-Learning Dr. Andrea Varricchio , Professor of Spanish, Dept. of Languages and Cultures, WCU, and Ms. Ana Pascarella, Program Coordinator, Open Doors English Class and After School Homework Program, Cornerstone Christian Fellowship, (60 mins)	Phillips Lower-level Phillips Library Phillips Board Rm.
3:15-5:00	Breakout Session #6 Panel Presentation #1 : Identifying the Health Care Needs of Latinos and Developing Health Program(s) to Meet those Needs Dr. Debra Bill and Dr. David Delgado, WCU Department of Health; Michele Tucker, WCU Dept. of Nursing; Christine Mummert, Maternal and Child Health Care Consortium of Chester County; Marguerite Harris, Clinical Director, Project Salud; Joan Holliday, Chester County Health Department. Presentation #2: Empathy and the Law: When Human Rights Challenge the Constitution Dr. Chris Stangl, WCU Dept. of Political Science (60 mins) Panel Presentation #3: - Issues of Locating “Home” for Migrant Latino Youth in Chester County Dr. Kim Doan, WCU Dept. of Special Education, Ms. Laurie Szoke, Penn State Agricultural Extension, Dr. Gary Coutu, WCU Dept. of Geography. (60 mins)	Phillips Library Phillips Lower Level Phillips Bd. Room
5:00	Closing – Concluding Reflections and Evaluations Certification for those seeking ACT 48 credits	Phillips Library