1. Restrictive Major Requirement (RMR): To remain in the major or to transfer into the major, the student must complete the following prerequisite courses with a GPA of at least a 3.0 and a minimum grade of "C" or better; CSD 101, CSD 106, WRT 1XX, MAT 103 or above, CSD 203, CSD 207, ENG230/LIN230, and WRT 2XX. Students may not use more than a total of three repeats across the CSD courses to satisfy the RMR (CSD 101, CSD 106, CSD 203, and CSD 207).

2. Letter Grade Requirement: Grades of C-, D, or F earned in major (CSD) courses must be raised to C or better. A major course in which a student earns a grade of C-, D, or F must be repeated the next time the course is offered (provided space availability exists). If a student earns less than a C in a major course that is a prerequisite for a more advanced course, the student will not be permitted to enroll in the advanced one until the prerequisite course is repeated with a grade of C or better.
3. GPA Requirement: A minimum 2.5 cumulative GPA and 2.5 GPA in the major courses are required for all communication sciences and disorders majors to complete the degree program.
4. Related (Cognate) Area courses 1, 2, 4, 5, and 6 can be taken during any semester. (The numbers assigned to Related Areas courses in the above course sequence were used simply to ensure that each course was accounted for).
5. Students must take PSY 100 as one of the behavioral and social science courses to meet the standard of the American Speech-Language Hearing Association (ASHA).
6. Students must take (1) BIO and (2) CHE or PHY as the science courses to meet the standard of the ASHA.
